

NATIONAL MEDICAL LABORATORY WEEK

An opportunity to showcase our profession during
Medical Laboratory Technology Week

“Medical Laboratory Professionals – The Diagnostic Engine of Canada’s Health System”

April 18 – 24, 2010

Your laboratory could win an OSMT recognition award for the best promotion of medical laboratory technology

Please submit a description of how your staff promoted NMLW. Describe any tours, displays, publicity, target audience, participation etc. Please include pictures if possible. A panel of judges from the OSMT will review the submissions and make a recognition award for the best entry. The winners will be featured in the OSMT "Advocate" magazine.
